

AEPA Annual Conference: Leading Education LocallyFriday 22 March 2024

Queen Elizabeth II Centre, Coram Campus, 41 Brunswick Square, London WC1N 1AZ

10.00-10.20am	Tea, coffee, and pastries
10.20-10.30am	Welcome and introduction to the day AEPA Co-chairs: Dame Christine Gilbert, Baroness Estelle Morris
10.30am-11.30am	Keynote: Catherine McKinnell , Shadow Schools Minister Chair, Baroness Estelle Morris
11.35am- 12.25pm	Workshops: choice of one
	Stronger Partnerships, Simpler structures Developing a case for structural reform Dickens Room	Alan Parker , Former Schools Adjudicator and LA Director of Education
	Educational Equity and Excellence for All Developing the use of SAfE's inclusion self-evaluation framework to support continuous improvement Sir Hans Sloane room (main conference room)	Maria Dawes , CEO, Schools Alliance for Excellence (SAfE) in Surrey
	The Reading Fluency Project journey: lessons learned along the way Exploring the trajectory of HFL Education's Reading Fluency Project: small-scale trial to the national EEF-funded evaluation Story Studio	Penny Slater , Education Development & Partnership Lead, HfL Education (formerly Herts for Learning)
12.30-1.25pm	Lunch
1.30pm-2.30pm	Keynote: Dame Rachel de Souza , Children's Commissioner Children's Commissioner's address Chair, Dame Christine Gilbert
2.35pm-3.25pm	Workshops: choice of one
	Stronger Partnerships, Simpler structures Developing a case for structural reform Dickens Room	Alan Parker , Former Schools Adjudicator and LA Director of Education
	Educational Equity and Excellence for All Developing the use of SAfE's inclusion self-evaluation framework to support continuous improvement Sir Hans Sloane room (main conference room)	Maria Dawes , CEO, Schools Alliance for Excellence (SAfE) in Surrey
	The Reading Fluency Project journey: lessons learned along the way Exploring the trajectory of HFL Education's Reading Fluency Project: small-scale trial to the national EEF-funded evaluation Story Studio	Penny Slater , Education Development & Partnership Lead, HfL Education (formerly Herts for Learning)
3.30pm	Area-based education partnerships: a transitional opportunity James Page , CEO, Haringey Education Partnership
4.00pm	Close of Conference
4-4.30pm	Coffee and networking	